Many a beauteous flower decays, Though we tend it e'er so much; Something secret on it preys, Which no human aid can touch!

So, in many a loving breast, Lies some canker-grief concealed, That, if touch'd is more oppressed, Left unto itself-is healed.

Oft, unknowingly, the tongue Touches on a chord so aching, That a word, or accent wrong, Pains the heart almost to breaking.

Many a tear of wounded pride, Many a fault of human blindness, Had been soothed or turn'd aside. By a quiet voice of kindness!

Time to me this truth hath taught, 'Tis a truth that's worth revealing; More offend from want of thought, Than from any want of feeling.
